

Advisory Board Trustees (for further details see <http://www.workableworld.org/>)

Director: Joseph E. Schwartzberg. A life-long peace and justice activist, Joe has served in leadership roles in many organizations, especially in those related to world federalism. He was one of the founders in 1995 of the Minnesota Alliance of Peacemakers. After obtaining his PhD, he taught at the University of Pennsylvania (1960-64) and the University of Minnesota (1964-2000). A prolific author, his academic specialties were in South Asia and political geography. In 2009 he was awarded the title Distinguished International Professor Emeritus at the University of Minnesota.

Honorary Director, Mark Ritchie. Mark is President and CEO of EXPO 2023, the citizen's committee working to bring a world's fair to Minnesota. He served as Minnesota's elected Secretary of State from 2006 until his retirement in 2015. From 1988 to 2006, he was President of the Institute for Agricultural and Trade Policy. He now holds the endowed Chair in Sustainable Food Systems at the University of Minnesota.

Administrative Assistant, Nancy Dunlavy. Nancy was trained in library science at the University of Minnesota, and worked as a reference librarian for over 25 years, at both the University of Minnesota and Honeywell. She has been a member for 44 years of Soka Gakkai International, a socially engaged Buddhist community. She has initiated numerous events in Minnesota relating to environmental and peace-related issues.

Michael Andregg. Michael, who has a PhD in genetics, serves as an adjunct professor at the Universities of St. Thomas (in Justice and Peace Studies) and Minnesota. Among his many publications is the award-winning book, On the Causes of War. For almost 30 years he ran Global Zero Minnesota, a non-profit organization that produced a wealth of educational materials devoted to questions of societal well-being.

Dick Bernard. After nine years of teaching social studies in high school and junior high school, Dick spent 27 years as a field representative of the National Education Association. He became very active in peace and justice advocacy in 2001, and from 2005 to 2007 was President of the Minnesota Alliance of Peacemakers. Dick is an avid blogger (<http://www.outsidethewalls.org/blog/>).

Ron Glossop. Long a leading figure, at the national and local levels, in the World Federalist Association / Citizens for Global Solutions, Ron has been President of their Greater St. Louis Chapter since 1970. He is a Professor Emeritus of Philosophy at the Southern Illinois University-Edwardsville, where he served as Coordinator of Peace Studies for 25 years. Among his books are Confronting War (4th ed., 2001) and World Federation? (1994).

Gail Hughes. Gail, a former Peace Corps volunteer in Lesotho, is the current President of Citizens for Global Solutions, Minnesota and a member of CGS' national Board. She is a part-time faculty member for courses in education at Capella University and previously taught global studies, social studies and interdisciplinary social studies at St. Cloud State University.

Louise Pardee. A retired, but busy, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother, Louise has been a teacher, business owner and partner in a real estate management firm, as well as, for many years, a peace and justice activist. She served three terms as the President of the Minnesota Chapter of the World Federalist Association and in leadership positions in the former Minnesota Peace and Justice Coalition and in Ground Zero Minnesota.
